From Our Pastor...

SIMPLE RULES

A few days ago, CGH hospital posted a note on their Facebook page, saying, "When you enter CGH Medical Center, you are entering a Healing Environment. I thought, "Of course, it is. Everybody knows it and appreciates it." Then, it follows, "Please take responsibility for your behavior." Interesting!

In short, Our stress level goes up after a long period of this tiring and exhausting pandemic, and hospitals, including CGH, encounter many patients and their families' emotional responses and sometimes violence. It is common sense that we need to be kind, patient, understanding, and respecting one another, as we maintain and build up public trust in our community.

We know there are things to do and not to do by the law and rules. Then, how do we know we are on the right track in our faithful journey? What are the marks of the Christian life? Jesus commands us to "love the Lord your God and love your neighbors as yourself." As faithful disciples, that is the goal of our Christian lives, and we want to live our lives by his commend. Then, the question is, "How can we manifest our love for God and neighbors in our words and actions?" This question has been with Christians of all ages.

Thankfully, John Wesley felt urged to speak about living our lives by God's will. He said that it is faith in Jesus Christ, hope in the salvation, and love of God and neighbors as ourselves. The marks can appear in our changes on our faith journey through love in action, kindness, patience, endurance, compassion, and justice. He also mentioned the means of grace, such as keeping God's commandments, partaking in the Sacraments, worship, praying, fasting, and reading the Bible. These are specific practices of faith that help us grow more in faith, become more like Jesus, and come close to God.

And he also addressed three rules called "Wesleyan General Rules" or "Three Simple Rules." These are "Do No Harm," "Do Good," and "Stay in Love with God." He also narrated some specific guidelines to keep the Wesleyan General Rules. Isn't it interesting that he mentioned "Do Not" before "Do?" We will have a series of sermons on Wesleyan General Rules this month. Let's ponder those three rules and utilize them on our faith journey. Amen.

Peace in Christ,

Rev. Faul Lee

Men, Come Run The Race With Us! New 6-Week Men's Group Study Beginning February 12th - March 19th Saturday Mornings From 8:00 Am To 9:30am In The Church Fireside Room

No previous Bible knowledge needed. Just come join a great group of guys who meet to share life, laughs, and learnings about how God fits into our everyday lives. You may be surprised how fun this group is!... Just give us a try for a week or two and see for yourself.

Here is what this session is all about: Find Strength For the Race of Life

Life as a follower of Christ is not a fifty-yard dash. It's a marathon. God offers strength for the race, cold water to quench our thirst, and fresh legs when we grow weary. We never run alone. He is always right beside us cheering us on or ahead of us leading the way.

Do you need energy and refreshment for the race of life? In Philippians, you will find all you need to run with strength and confidence. If you desire joy beyond measure, perseverance, a servant's heart, hope for the future, a peace beyond understanding, and lasting contentment, look no further than Philippians.

Come try us out for 1 week or join us for all six! (and Ladies, if you want a better husband or significant other, send him our way and we know you will be glad you did!)
